DETAILED ACTION

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the subject matter of claims 13 and 15 (at least the reference numerals, e.g., for the surfaces, should be specified in the drawings and specification) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered. [Applicants should further check that all claimed features of the apparatus must be shown in the drawings and all associated reference numerals must be incorporated in the specification].

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o).

The claimed “.. at least part of the folded-back portion is inclined downward with respect to a horizontal direction of the internal mounting portion” in claim 1 and the same feature in claim 6 as well as the subject matter of claims 13 and 15 are not positively recited in the specification.

Claims 12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The subject matter of claims 12 and 14 are nowhere in the specification. If support can be pointed –out, at least the specification fails to provide proper antecedent basis for the above claimed subject matter as they are also not positively recited in the specification.

Claims 12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first and second paragraphs, as the claimed invention is not described in such full, clear, concise and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to make and use the same, and fails to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 12 recitation of “.. the folded back portion comprises a horizontal portion attached to a connecting portion and an inclined portion” appears to be different from what is shown e.g., in Fig. 2. It is the support beam 12 which is shown comprised of the mounting portion 13, connecting portion 15 and the folded portion 14, not the element 14 itself as claimed. Note also claim 14.

[Applicants should further check the amendment(s) for any subject matter that was added, but was not originally presented in the specification as filed, noting that when amending the specification and claims, care must be exercised to avoid introduction of anything which could be construed to be new matter prohibited by 35 U.S.C. 132 and 37 CFR 1.121].

Claims 1-2, 4-7, and 9-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a). Claim 12 is at odds with the claim from which it depends, i.e., claim 1. Claim 1 recites that the angle is formed by the folded –back portion and the horizontal direction of the internal mounting portion, whereas, claim 12 recites that the angle is formed by the inclined and the horizontal portion of the folded back portion which is inconsistent therewith. The same holds true for claim 14. Compare also the inner surface directed toward the mounting portion in claim 13 with claim 1 “at least part of the folded-back portion is inclined downward with respect to a direction of the internal mounting portion” The same holds true for claim 15.

b). It is unclear what constitute the angles recited in claims 1 and 6 as they are not specified in the claims.

Claims 1-2, 4-7 and 9-15 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st and 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action, especially specifying the angles in the independent claims.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
